

Axolotl

Ambystoma mexicanum

Their gills have distinctive feathery extensions.

They have a large mouth and a square jaw.

They have a long, finned tail for swimming.

They have short legs with four toes on the front feet and five toes on the back feet.

