

Label the Scorpion

Common Striped Scorpion

Centruroides vittatus

curved tail has a stinger at the end with venom to paralyse prey two wide, dark stripes on upper abdomen (middle section) dark triangle-shaped mark on the front of the head front legs have strong pincers for catching prey